

Terry Deno opened the meeting at 7:00 p.m.

Patrick Striker gave a Presentation on the Spokane C.O.P.S. Block Watch Program.

Block Watch is a group of neighbors that band together to watch out for each other and to report crime, suspicious activity and serious code violations on their street. They emphasize the importance of getting to know your neighbors. Neighbors work together with the police and their neighborhood C.O.P.S. Shop to focus on addressing concerns.

Karen Stratton reported from the City Council.

The investigation into the Guardian Foundation continues. The Salvation Army is taking over the contract for services.

Catholic Charities plans to open the location at the Quality Inn on the Sunset Highway on December 1st.

It will offer Transitional Housing , 24 hour services.

The Park Plan for Meadowglen Park has been adopted and approved.

Grant money to support Hope House and other shelters will be available.

Jeanine McKinney reported a balance of $6,534.49.

Nancy Perkins spoke about the services available at the Cop Shop located in the Shadle Center area. She encouraged anyone who would like to volunteer to check out spokanecops.org for information on their services.

Terry closed the meeting at 8:10 p.m. The next meeting will be January 10, 2023.